

A FEATURE DOCUMENTARY

Making the Law Real.

The story of Judge Bernice Donald, from a segregated classroom in Mississippi to the federal bench.

Support the film →

KAURI FILMS Fiscally sponsored by Southern Documentary Fund

Help fund the Memphis shoot and proof-of-concept film.

DONATE THROUGH SDF

WATCH THE VIDEO

Click a button or scan the code to support the film.

MISSISSIPPI, 1957

A legal declaration does not enforce itself.

Three years after Brown v. Board, Bernice Bouie walked into a segregated school. She became one of America's most groundbreaking judges.

Making the Law Real

A documentary on Judge Bernice Donald

Support the film →

kaurifilms.com/lawreal

KAURI FILMS

Fiscally sponsored by Southern Documentary Fund

Help fund the Memphis shoot and proof-of-concept film.

DONATE THROUGH SDF

WATCH THE VIDEO

Click a button or scan the code to support the film.

A FEATURE DOCUMENTARY

Making the Law Real.

The story of Judge Bernice Donald, from a segregated classroom in Mississippi to the federal bench.

Support the film →

KAURI FILMS

kaurifilms.com/lawreal

Help fund the Memphis shoot and proof-of-concept film.

DONATE THROUGH SDF

WATCH THE VIDEO

Click a button or scan the code to support the film.